

Consider Solvera, one of Western Canada's Leading IT and Business Consulting Firms

If you are a talented IT Consultant looking to build a strong, prosperous career right here in Western Canada, let's talk.

If you ask any Solvera employee what makes Solvera the right place for them, chances are you will hear the same comments we do. Respect, professionalism, challenge, development and opportunity are themes figuring prominently among the ...

Top TEN Reasons to consider Solvera

1. Company leaders demonstrate respect and genuine concern for our workforce of 200+ talented consultants.
2. Solvera's progressive, team-oriented culture provides an exceptional work environment.
3. With offices and assignments throughout western Canada, Solvera provides a variety of rewarding and challenging employment opportunities.
4. Solvera strongly supports its home communities and helps employees do so as well.
5. Solvera has solid long-term business relationships with an impressive list of clients.
6. Solvera provides competitive base pay and bonuses, and a comprehensive benefits program that sets it apart in the marketplace.
7. Solvera is among the very best places to work in Canada.
8. An impressive 95% of employees agree that professional development is strongly supported in the organization.
9. Solvera is a Best Managed Company with impressive growth and a well-considered business strategy built for sustainability. Our future is bright.
10. Solvera is a diverse, multi-cultural company with employees hailing from all over the world.

Look closer • Visit solvera.ca for career information and current opportunities.